

Research Ethics Board (REB): Approval Sequencing and Information

Did you know?

Lakehead University and Laurentian University are the REBs of record for NOSM U researchers.

* The REB has the option to reject research it deems unethical.

**Please note: This timeline is for online delegated review only. There is a longer timeline for projects that are greater than minimal risk, requiring a face-to-face full board review, which takes place once per month.

 = YES! Approved.  = Application Requires Information
