WHAT WE DO

Residency provides a unique opportunity to learn, to grow and to set the stage for the rest of your career. Residency also has its challenges. While you will face high expectations, the NOSM University Resident Wellness program aims to ensure that you also have a high degree of support.

Our mission is to support you in achieving the knowledge and skills necessary to develop healthy and productive professional identities during this important transitional time. The framework of the program includes occupational/academic health, physical health, emotional health, and social health.

Our highest priority is providing and coordinating supports for residents who have specific health needs, whether pre-existing or arising, during residency.

Wellness Program personnel will assist residents with finding and coordinating health resources i.e. physician referral, counselling supports, as well as working with residency programs to develop accommodations for the learning and training environment, if needed.

ALL RESIDENT WELLNESS SERVICES ARE CONFIDENTIAL.

RESIDENT WELLNESS PROGRAM CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

(AVAILABLE UNDER PGME POLICIES ON THE NOSM U WEBSITE OR NOSM U WELL APP)

WHO WE ARE

The program also includes proactive components for all residents such as: a wellness curriculum, promoting safe housing and transportation, ensuring resident's duty hours and leave protections are respected, providing cultural supports, and ensuring guidance with developing a healthy and productive professional identity.

The Resident Wellness Program is NOT a crisis service, however residents have access to 24/7 crisis support- see below.

WHO WE ARE

Learner Affairs Officers (LAOs)

Nick Alderton, Laura Csontos, Kathleen Wells and Maryse Gareau
(pgewellness@nosm.ca)

Our team of Learner Affairs Officers (LAOs) are the main contacts for all stakeholders of the program, including medical residents, faculty, staff, academic teaching centers and community partners. Under the guidance of the Assistant Dean of Resident Affairs (ADRA), the LAOs provide intake services for residents seeking support from the Wellness Program.

The LAOs provide support and coaching, as well as helping with system navigation and connection with resources. They can assist with facilitating referrals to our clinical psychologist, family physicians, the ADRA and the accessibility advisor as needed.

Assistant Dean, Resident Affairs (ADRA)

Dr. Sean Sullivan, MD CCFP (residentwellness@nosm.ca)

The ADRA is available to residents to provide direct and confidential support. He is available for coaching and advice pertaining to wellness issues and residency, along with arranging referrals to other supports as needed. The ADRA assists residents who are requiring workplace accommodations due to a disability or health issue and co-chairs the NOSM University Accommodations Committee.

He works closely with the LAOs, Accessibility Advisor and other Learner Support Services staff. He represents the wellness interests of all residents and NOSM University PGME programs, which includes providing education, consultation, and support to faculty and administrators.

WHO WE ARE

Accessibility Advisor

Melissa Pafford (mpafford@nosm.ca)

The accessibility advisor is responsible for the administration, implementation, and quality control of accommodations, including accommodated testing and note-taking. She advises the Accommodations Committee and assists learners with accessing academic and clinical accommodations at NOSM University.

If you require workplace accommodations due to a disability or health concern, please reach out to Melissa. For more information, you can access: culture.nosm.ca/learner-accommodations-and-accessibility-services-2/

NOSM University Clinical Psychologist

Dr. Caroline Charette (info@charettepsychology.com)

Dr. Caroline Charette is a Clinical Psychologist contracted by NOSM U to provide confidential support to our residents. She is available to residents for individual therapy, as well as for small and large group resident sessions. Residents can self-refer themselves or they can contact the Wellness Program at pgewellness@nosm.ca for a referral.

There is no fee for NOSM University residents to access Dr. Charette's services.

WHO WE ARE

Director, Learner Support Services

Jennifer Turcotte-Russak (directorlearnersupportservices@nosm.ca)

The Director of Learner Support Services is responsible for the direction and operations of the department provides expertise and guidance on all matters relating to accommodation and accessibility.

NOSM University's Learner Support Services Office operates in consultation with the academic program, but is a confidential service for individual students, at arm's length from academics. Learner Support Services offers services and support which assist learners academically, personally and financially. It also has a primary role in career development, learner wellness and support for student initiatives.

Wellness Coordinator

Itunu Osifeso (iosifeso@nosm.ca)

Under the umbrella of Learner Support Services, the wellness coordinator plays a vital role in promoting the health and wellness of learners throughout NOSMU communities. She manages the Virtual Health and Wellness Hub and the NOSM U well app, as well as connects students with essential resources such as family physicians, counselling services, and more. The wellness coordinator also assists in the development of various wellness and safety awareness programs and facilitates interdepartmental collaboration for the deliveries of such programs.

By fostering a supportive environment, the wellness coordinator helps enhance the overall wellness and in turn success of NOSM U learners.

WHO WE ARE

IMG Coordinators

Dr. Ashima Bansal (imgleadeast@nosm.ca)

Dr. Jacinta Oyella (imgleadwest@nosm.ca)

The IMG Coordinators are a confidential support for all internationally trained physicians and families throughout residency for both educational and personal support.

They are a liaison for IMG residents and families prior to arrival in northern communities as well as help in addressing concerns brought forward by IMG residents throughout residency.

The IMG Coordinators also collaborates with various programs to share resources and support for IMG residents and are available to provide support to programs in the selection process of IMGs as well as helping to identify the candidates who will enter the next steps of the PRP and Assessment Verification Period (AVP).

The IMG Coordinators also collaborate with NOSM University faculty to promote and improve the educational experiences for IMGs.
